We help companies and employees to build a co-responsibility giving value to the environment and the marine biodiversity in Barcelona

- Oceanogami is an international consultancy organization and social enterprise specialized in ocean sustainability.
- We act as a liaison between companies, governmental and non-governmental organizations, research centers and other institutions that have a relationship with the marine environment.
- We provide consultancy services, build capacity, and create awareness for marine conservation.
- We adopt a multidisciplinary view, in which cultural, social and economic needs are integrated with environmental objectives to create sustainable solutions
- We also believe in the importance of education and outreach, and developing skills among the actors participating at any level in marine environmental management.
- Our core values are sustainability, education, communities and collaboration.

¿Who are we?

- Anèlides is an organization which works to promote the conservation of the marine environment through education and spreading awareness.
- We offer workshops for schools, equipment and individuals. We create awareness through environmental communication campaigns reaching all the relevant people and institutions.
- We take care of free time, conducting family activities, for young people and children, teaching about the sea in a playful way.
- We train and advise by offering tools and resources for specialized marine subjects. We take care of sustainable tourism, bringing it to responsible activities with the marine environment.
- We conduct studies of the coastline and research, to get to know it more thoroughly, prioritizing citizen science studies.
- We have a team of professionals with extensive experience in biology, environment and tourism.

Our Objectives

- Raise awareness about marine waste and plastic pollution
- Promote environmental responsibility and care for the marine biodiversity in the corporate sector in Barcelona.
- Design appropriate solutions for corporate social responsibility that benefits our oceans.
- Support companies and corporations towards contributing to achieve Sustainable Development Goals (SDG14)
